ANSWERED ON:16.03.2016
Priority Sector for Skill Development
Patel Shri Devji Mansingram

Will the Minister of SKILL DEVELOPMENT AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP be pleased to state:

(a) the main industries and the priority sectors for which skilled labour force is likely to be prepared by the Government in the next decade;
(b) whether any survey has been conducted in this regard;
(c) if so, the outcome thereof;
(d) the total number of organisations linked with the skill development which are functioning in the country including Rajasthan and the areas in which the said organisations provide training, State-wise; and
(e) whether the Government has set any target for making 500 million youth skilled in various streams by the year 2022 and if so, the details thereof?

Answer

(a) to (c) As per National Policy for Skill Development and Entrepreneurship, 2015, India had an employment base of 461.1 million in the 24 Sectors in 2013 which is expected to increase to 581 million by 2022. A sector wise list is at Annexure-I. About 104.62 million people would need fresh skilling in these sectors during 2015-22. In addition, 298.25 million persons of existing workforce especially below 45 years of age would need skilling upskilling and reskilling.

(d) & (e) National Skill Development Corporation (NSDC) under the Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship has over 250 training providers with about 4000 training centres including 226 in Rajasthan across the country. A state wise list of the training centres is at Annexure-II.
